COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES
SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

INCIDENT: Category 3 Use of Force, Fractured Right Hand

IAB FILE NUMBER: FO 2453695

DATE/ TIME: April 25, 2018 / 2155 Hours

LOCATION: [redacted] North Winton Avenue,
Unincorporated County Area of East Valinda

SYNOPSIS:

On April 27, 2018, Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Sergeants Maricela Castillo and Paul Valle responded to Industry Sheriff's (IDT) Station regarding a Category 3 use of force incident, which occurred on April 25, 2018. After the force incident, Mr. Rudy Marquez (Suspect Marquez) was taken to a hospital for medical treatment, and the attending physician determined he had sustained a fracture to the fourth metacarpal bone of his right hand. Sergeant Maricela Castillo was assigned the force review.

SUMMARY:

On April 25, 2018, at approximately 2155 hours, deputies from IDT Station responded to a priority call-for-service, regarding several males fighting in front of [redacted] (Tag #IND18115-0417). Deputies Luis Rodriguez and [redacted] (Unit 114D/PM) were given the handle of this call. Deputy Daren Jaramillo (Unit 142A/EM) assigned himself to the call to assist them. The call was voiced on Dispatch 8, and the deputies coordinated this incident on L-TAC [EXHIBIT A].

> IAB Note: Dispatch 8 is the main working frequency for IDT Station, while L-TAC is the local tactical frequency used by the field deputies.

Before the deputies arrived at the location, the following update was provided by the dispatcher, "DP DISPERSED, NO LONGER FIGHTING…" Deputies Rodriguez, [redacted], and Jaramillo arrived in the area within ten minutes of receiving the call. Deputy Jaramillo drove north on Sandalwood Avenue ahead of Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] and checked the vicinity for any possible suspects/victims. At the end of Sandalwood Avenue, they continued east on Wintonwood Lane, which connected to Winton Avenue in a "horseshoe" type cul-de-sac. Deputy Jaramillo continued south on Winton Avenue to check the vicinity as Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] detained two males at Wintonwood Lane and Winton Avenue. Once the deputies determined the two males were not involved in the fight call, they were no longer detained and allowed to leave the scene.

While driving south on Winton Avenue, Deputy Jaramillo saw another Hispanic male, in a white shirt, running across the street directly in front of his patrol vehicle. This caused Deputy Jaramillo to stop his vehicle in the middle of the street, in front of [redacted] North Winton Avenue. When the Hispanic male ran north toward Deputies Rodriguez' and [redacted]s location, Deputy Jaramillo exited his patrol car and walked behind it to see where the Hispanic male went. Deputy Jaramillo relayed his observation, via his portable radio, on the Direct Mode of Dispatch 8 to Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted].

> IAB NOTE: The Direct Mode allows field personnel to directly communicate with each other at close range, and the radio transmissions cannot be heard, recorded, or monitored by the dispatchers at the Sheriff's Communication Center.

Afterward, Deputy Jaramillo's attention was immediately diverted to his patrol vehicle, as he heard someone making a loud grunting sound, just south of his position. He then saw a male (later identified as Suspect Marquez) jump onto the hood of his patrol car. Suspect Marquez landed face down on the hood with both arms to his sides, while he continued to grunt. Deputy Jaramillo cautiously approached the front of his patrol vehicle and ordered Suspect Marquez to get off the hood. Suspect Marquez rolled off the hood and landed on his feet with his back against the left front fender. Suspect Marquez spun his body around in many revolutions along the patrol car, stopped at the driver's door, and opened it. Suspect Marquez grabbed the steering wheel with his left hand and placed his left foot inside the vehicle. Deputy Jaramillo believed Suspect Marquez was about to steal his patrol car.

At this time, Deputy Jaramillo attempted to use his radio to call for help, but realized the microphone was pulled away from his shirt. After Deputy Jaramillo regained control of his microphone, he requested assistance. Within seconds, he realized he did not receive an acknowledgment of his emergent radio traffic because his portable radio was still on the Direct Mode of Dispatch 8. Deputy Jaramillo feared he was losing control of Suspect Marquez as he continued to pull away from him, toward the patrol vehicle. Deputy Jaramillo punched Suspect Marquez once in the forehead, with his right fist in an attempt to subdue him; however, Suspect Marquez continued to pull away from him. With his back against the wedge of the car door, Deputy Jaramillo leaned forward while he maintained control of Suspect Marquez' upper body with his left arm. Deputy Jaramillo stepped forward, twisted his body to the right, and took Suspect Marquez to the ground. Deputy Jaramillo landed on top of Suspect Marquez, who landed face down on the ground. Deputy Jaramillo straddled Suspect Marquez' lower back as Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] ran up to assist him. Deputy Rodriguez handcuffed Suspect Marquez' right wrist as Deputy [redacted] controlled Suspect Marquez' legs. Deputies Rodriguez and Jaramillo rolled Suspect Marquez to the right and removed Suspect Marquez' left arm from under his torso area for handcuffing.

Suspect Marquez' aggressive demeanor diminished, and he became more cooperative. Deputies [redacted] and Rodriguez escorted Suspect Marquez to their patrol vehicle and secured him in the back seat. Once Suspect Marquez started to kick at the car door and window, Deputy Rodriguez secured a hobble around Suspect Marquez' legs. Suspect Marquez did not resist him. The deputies reported the use of force to Sergeant [redacted] (Witness [redacted]) and documented their actions under report #018-05573-1442-058 [Exhibit B].

WITNESS STATEMENTS:

The following narratives are intended only as a synopsis of the interviews. Additional information and precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interviews or the digitally recorded video and verbatim transcriptions submitted with this case.

SERGEANT [redacted]

On January 21, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo interviewed Sergeant [redacted] at the Internal Affairs Bureau office. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Sergeant [redacted] worked as the [redacted] shift field sergeant ([redacted]) and heard the initial call for service regarding males fighting in the street. Sergeant [redacted] next recalled hearing radio traffic of a deputy involved fight on the Direct Mode of Dispatch 8. She responded from IDT Station and arrived to the location within minutes (Transcript, [redacted] page 4). Upon her arrival, Sergeant [redacted] saw two patrol vehicles stopped in the middle of the street, in front of [redacted] North Winton Avenue, facing south. Sergeant [redacted] contacted Deputies Jaramillo, [redacted], and Rodriguez at the location. She saw Suspect Marquez was secured in the back seat of a patrol vehicle and noticed he was not kicking or flailing around.

All three deputies reported their use of force to her. Deputy Rodriguez informed her that he had placed a hobble around Suspect Marquez' legs, without any resistance, to prevent Suspect Marquez from kicking at the patrol car's window (Transcript, [redacted] page 8).

Shortly after she arrived, Deputies Benny Khouthavong #[redacted], Claire Kim #[redacted], and Gustavo Hernandez #[redacted] also arrived. She directed Deputies Khouthavong and Kim to transport Suspect Marquez to the hospital.

> IAB NOTE: IAB Investigators contacted Deputy Gustavo Hernandez, who stated he arrived after the use of forced had concluded and left shortly thereafter.

Sergeant [redacted] contacted potential witnesses and recorded their information in her notebook. She spoke with Witnesses [redacted] (Witness [redacted] and [redacted] (Witness [redacted]), and both of them corroborated Deputy Jaramillo's statements about the incident.

> IAB NOTE: IAB Investigators later contacted the witnesses listed in Sergeant [redacted] notebook. All parties provided statements, except Ms. [redacted] who stated she did not observe the fight.

Sergeant [redacted] drove to Queen of the Valley Hospital, and learned Suspect Marquez had been sedated by the medical staff due to his violent behavior. Sergeant [redacted] took pictures of Suspect Marquez at the hospital and of Deputy Jaramillo's injuries at the station [EXHIBIT D]. She informed her watch commander of the incident and made the required IAB notification.

DEPUTY BENNY KHOUTHAVONG

On January 9, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo interviewed Deputy Benny

Khouthavong at IDT Station. Deputy Khouthavong was represented by Attorney Tommy Yu of the Legal Offices of Tommy Yu. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Deputy Khouthavong worked on P.M. shift with Deputy Kim as Unit 143T1. Deputy Khouthavong vaguely recalled responding to the location due to a request for additional deputies. They arrived after the use of force incident had concluded and transported Suspect Marquez to the hospital as requested (Transcript, Khouthavong, page 5). Deputy Khouthavong recalled Suspect Marquez banged his head on the patrol vehicle's plexi-glass. When Deputy Khouthavong told Suspect Marquez to stop banging his head, Suspect Marquez complied.

DEPUTY CLAIRE KIM

On January 9, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo interviewed Deputy Claire Kim at IDT Station. Deputy Kim was represented by Attorney Tommy Yu of the Legal Offices of Tommy Yu. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Deputy Kim was on [redacted] and she worked on P.M. shift with Deputy Khouthavong as Unit 143T1. Deputy Kim vaguely recalled they responded to the location and transported Suspect Marquez to the hospital in a patrol vehicle, which Suspect Marquez had been detained in (Transcript, Kim, page 7). Deputy Kim did not recall having any problems with Suspect Marquez during the transportation, and she was not involved in a use of force with him (Transcript, Kim, page 9).

WITNESS [redacted]

On January 17, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo and Lieutenant Minh Dinh interviewed Witness [redacted] at her residence. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Witness [redacted] was in her bedroom when she heard loud yelling coming from the street. She turned on her television and checked the surveillance cameras. Witness [redacted] saw two male Hispanics fighting in the middle of Sandalwood Avenue, directly [redacted] of her house. She immediately notified her [redacted], Witness [redacted], of her observation. Witness [redacted] used her cell phone and called 911 to report the fight, while Witness [redacted] and his [redacted] went to the front yard to ensure her vehicle was not vandalized by the combatants (Transcript, Sevilla, page 3).

Witness [redacted] went to her front door and saw the two men fist fighting at the northeast corner of Sandalwood Avenue and Wintonwood Lane. The males fought for approximately three minutes, took a break, and then continued fighting as they walked east on Wintonwood Lane and out of her view. Witness [redacted] opined the males were possibly intoxicated, because their punches were not connecting with the intended targets, and due to the fact they were taking short breaks as they fought one another (Transcript, Sevilla, page 7). Approximately ten minutes later, IDT deputies arrived to the area. She heard a male deputy yell, "Get on the ground!" She assumed the combatants were being detained near Wintonwood Lane and Winton Avenue, where she saw a patrol vehicle stopped with its rotator lights on (Transcript, [redacted] page 11). She did not see anything else.

Witness [redacted] indicated, during the initial period, she could watch the two men fighting on her television, because the television served as the monitor for her video surveillance system. She did not video record the fight between the two men. Witness [redacted] said she could have recorded the fight using her cellphone, but she had to use it to call 911.

WITNESS [redacted]

On January 17, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo and Lieutenant Minh Dinh interviewed Witness [redacted] at his residence. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Witness [redacted] was in his backyard when Witness [redacted] advised him about two males fighting and arguing in the middle of Sandalwood Avenue. Witness [redacted] went to his front porch and stood just outside his front door, where he saw two males fist fighting near the northeast corner of Sandalwood Avenue and Wintonwood Lane. During the fight, one of the males leaned on Witness [redacted]s vehicle taking a break. The two males resumed fighting for approximately three more minutes, took another break, and then resumed fighting and arguing as they walked away, going east on Wintonwood Lane. Witness [redacted] recalled the males punching each other; however, not all of the punches were connecting (Transcript, [redacted] page 7). Once the males went out of his view, Witness [redacted] returned to the back yard. He said he did not recognize the males as his neighbors.

Approximately ten minutes later, Witness [redacted] saw two SUV patrol vehicles driving slowly, north on Sandalwood Avenue, with their spot lights on. Witness [redacted] remained in his back yard and did not have any further observation of the incident.

WITNESS [redacted]

On April 27, 2018, IAB Sergeants Maricela Castillo and Paul Valle interviewed Witness [redacted] at his residence. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, at approximately 2140 hours, he was in his bedroom when he heard loud arguing coming from the street. He looked out of his window and saw two males arguing in his front yard. He immediately sent a text message to his [redacted] Witness [redacted] (Witness [redacted]), to alert her of the situation. He recalled one male was wearing a white shirt, and the other male, who was later arrested (Suspect Marquez), was wearing all black clothing. (Transcript, [redacted] page 2). Approximately five minutes later, he went to the living room and looked out the living room window with his mother. He observed two males wrestling on his front yard for approximately twenty minutes. At one point, the male in the white shirt broke away and ran up and down Winton Avenue. He noticed Suspect Marquez stood by to watch as the male in the white shirt punched a mailbox off its post and slammed his shoulder into a parked vehicle (Transcript, [redacted], page 6).

Minutes later, Witness [redacted] saw a patrol vehicle drive south on Winton Avenue and stop just one house north of his property. He saw the male in the white shirt run north on Winton Avenue and away from the patrol car. In the meantime, Suspect Marquez crouched down behind a parked car. Shortly thereafter, Suspect Marquez got up, went to the side of the parked car, and got down on his hands and knees. Witness [redacted] then saw Suspect Marquez pounce toward the patrol vehicle like "a cat" (Transcript, [redacted] page 8). Suspect Marquez jumped onto the hood of the patrol vehicle as the deputy exited the vehicle. Fearing a shooting may ensue, Witness [redacted] ducked down in the hallway and called IDT Station for help (Transcript, [redacted] page 2).

WITNESS [redacted]

On April 27, 2018, IAB Sergeants Maricela Castillo and Paul Valle interviewed Witness [redacted] at her residence. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, at approximately 2140 hours, Witness [redacted] received a text message from her [redacted] (Witness [redacted]), who indicated he heard arguing coming from the street. Witness [redacted] looked through the living room window and saw two males fighting in her front yard. One of the males was wearing a white shirt, and the other male was wearing all black clothing. She observed the two males wrestling on the ground, and they later moved toward her neighbors' front yard. The male in the white shirt then punched a mailbox and hit a parked vehicle, as the male in black clothing stood by to watch. The male in black clothing then ran north on Winton Avenue to Wintonwood Lane, as the male in the white shirt ran across the street from the east curb to the west curb of Winton Avenue, out of her view. Witness [redacted] was unable to see where they went from her position (Transcript, [redacted], page 12).

Later, Witness [redacted] saw a patrol vehicle approach and stop in the middle of Winton Avenue. At this time, Witness [redacted] saw a third male (Suspect Marquez), who was also dressed in black clothing, crouching behind a parked vehicle at the front of her house. Witness [redacted] believed Suspect Marquez was waiting to be handcuffed, because he lay on the ground with his arms to his sides. However, Suspect Marquez quickly stood up, put his hands in the air, and grunted as he leaped onto the hood of the patrol vehicle "like a little bear" (Transcript, [redacted] page 13). Witness [redacted] believed a fight might have been ensued between the deputy and Suspect Marquez. She was not in the position to see the fight due to the poor lighting on the street, the distance from her position to where the fight might have occurred, and her poor vision. Witness [redacted] told Witness [redacted] to call IDT Station to request additional deputies because she feared the lone deputy would be overpowered by the three males. A short time later, a female deputy came to her front door and asked her about the incident.

On January 17, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo and Lieutenant Minh Dinh interviewed Witness [redacted] (Witness [redacted]) at his residence. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Witness [redacted] was driving north on Winton Avenue from Gemini Avenue, with his [redacted] (Witness [redacted]) and their [redacted]. Witness [redacted] saw a patrol vehicle stopped in the middle of the street, near [redacted] North Winton Avenue, facing south. The patrol vehicle did not block the roadway, because it was not stopped at an angle. He drove past the patrol vehicle along its driver's side, and parked his truck in front of his [redacted]. Witness [redacted] looked north toward Wintonwood Lane and saw a second patrol vehicle there. He believed the deputies may be barricading the streets (Transcript, [redacted] page 2).

Witness [redacted] looked at his rear view mirror and saw the reflection of the first patrol vehicle behind him. He now saw a lone deputy (Deputy Jaramillo) straddled over a male (Suspect Marquez), who was lying face down on the ground. Deputy Jaramillo and Suspect Marquez were positioned approximately eight inches away from the patrol vehicle, next to the driver's side rear bumper (Transcript, [redacted] page 11). He noticed Suspect Marquez was attempting to stand up while Deputy Jaramillo was straddling over his body. Approximately two minutes later, the second patrol vehicle drove south from Wintonwood Lane toward Deputy Jaramillo's position. The second patrol vehicle parked directly in front of Witness [redacted]'s residence. Witness [redacted] saw two deputies exit the second patrol vehicle, and they went to assist Deputy Jaramillo in holding Suspect Marquez down and handcuffing him. The two responding deputies escorted Suspect Marquez to the second patrol vehicle (Transcript, [redacted] page 5).

Witness [redacted] and his [redacted] then entered his home. Witness [redacted] looked out of the window and saw Suspect Marquez was detained in patrol vehicle in front of his home. Witness [redacted] opined Suspect Marquez was under the influence of drugs because he was yelling and rambling but he was not making sense. Witness [redacted] walked away from the window and did not witness any further actions (Transcript, [redacted] page 7). Witness [redacted] opined Deputy Jaramillo used the appropriate "strength to apprehend" Suspect Marquez (Transcript, [redacted] page 1).

On January 17, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo and Lieutenant Minh Dinh interviewed Witness [redacted] (Witness [redacted]) at her residence. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Witness [redacted] was a passenger in the vehicle driven by her [redacted] (Witness [redacted]). They drove north on Winton Avenue, from Gemini Avenue, with their [redacted]. Witness [redacted] saw a patrol vehicle stopped in the street in front of [redacted] North Winton Avenue with the driver's door open (Transcript, [redacted] page 8). As Witness [redacted] drove past the patrol vehicle, Witness [redacted] saw someone behind the car door, holding what appeared to be "a dog" (Transcript, [redacted] page 1). After they parked in front of their house, Witness [redacted] looked south over her left shoulder and saw a deputy straddling over another person, who was moving around on the ground (Transcript, [redacted] page 11).

Once Witness [redacted] felt it was safe for her and her family to enter their home, she ushered them in and did not look back to see what happened (Transcript, [redacted] page 2).

WITNESS [redacted]

On April 27, 2018, IAB Sergeants Maricela Castillo and Paul Valle interviewed Witness [redacted] (Witness [redacted] at the Queen of the Valley Hospital. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Witness [redacted] and his [redacted], [redacted] (NFD), spent the day with his [redacted] (Suspect Marquez) at the front area of their house. At approximately 1800 hours, Suspect Marquez left with his friends. Witness [redacted] did not get into a fight with his [redacted] nor did he know with whom his [redacted] might have fought against that night. Witness [redacted] remembered he wore a long sleeved white shirt and Suspect Marquez wore a black shirt and gray pants on the day Suspect Marquez got arrested.

SUSPECT RUDY MARQUEZ

On April 27, 2018, IAB Sergeants Maricela Castillo and Paul Valle contacted Suspect Marquez at the Inmate Reception Center. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Suspect Marquez was home with his [redacted] (Witness [redacted] and his [redacted] s [redacted] ([redacted]. Suspect Marquez sat in a vehicle at the front of his house when he drank one bottle of vodka and two beers. Suspect Marquez believed he blacked out afterward and did not know anything until he woke up in a jail cell. Suspect Marquez vaguely remembered being involved in a fight with another person. He assumed the other person was a police officer because he was in jail. He later said the other person could have been his [redacted] or anyone who came in contact with him at the time because he was drunk.

Suspect Marquez complained of pain to his head and right hand. IAB Investigators observed he had minor swelling to his bottom lip and minor scrapes to both knees. He did not know how he sustained those injuries.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS:

Internal Affairs Bureau investigators interviewed the following involved Department personnel. The interviews were digitally recorded and transcribed. For complete statements made, more information, and precise wording, see attached verbatim interview transcriptions.

DEPUTY DAREN JARAMILLO

On January 1, 2019, IAB Sergeants Maricela Castillo and [redacted] interviewed Deputy Darren Jaramillo at IDT Station. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Deputy Jaramillo worked as Unit 142A on early morning shift. He heard a priority call regarding a fight disturbance at [redacted] Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] were given the handle on this call, and Deputy Magana was assigned as the assisting unit. Deputy Jaramillo responded to assist due to Deputy Magana's delayed response to the call. The handling unit coordinated the call on L-TAC, by providing a meeting location at Gemini Avenue and Sandalwood Avenue.

As they drove to the location, the call was updated as follows: "The disturbing parties stopped fighting and dispersed in different directions." Deputy Jaramillo and Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] met at the designated point and drove in tandem, north on Sandalwood Avenue, toward Wintonwood Lane. Deputy Jaramillo drove in front of them and continued east on Wintonwood Lane. After he drove south on Winton Avenue, Deputy Jaramillo saw a Hispanic male running from the east curb to the west curb of Winton Avenue. The Hispanic male continued running north toward the corner of Wintonwood Lane and Winton Avenue (Jaramillo, Transcript, page 10). Deputy Jaramillo stopped his patrol vehicle in the middle of the street and looked over his right shoulder for the Hispanic male; however, his view was obstructed by the small windows of his patrol vehicle.

Deputy Jaramillo exited his patrol vehicle to obtain a better view of the Hispanic male's path of running. He closed the driver's door, leaving the vehicle's engine running with his key in the ignition switch. He walked approximately ten feet in a northeasterly direction toward the rear of his patrol vehicle (Jaramillo, Transcript, page 15). Deputy Jaramillo saw Deputies Rodriguez' and [redacted]'s patrol vehicle at the corner of Wintonwood Lane and Winton Avenue. It was facing east with its rotator lights on. He switched his radio to the Direct Mode to advise Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] about a male running north in their direction (Jaramillo, Transcript, page 12).

Deputy Jaramillo's attention was immediately drawn to Suspect Marquez when Suspect Marquez ran toward Deputy Jaramillo's patrol vehicle while making a grunting noise. Suspect Marquez jumped on the hood of the patrol vehicle, landing flat on his stomach with his arms out to his sides (Jaramillo, Transcript, page 19). Deputy Jaramillo ordered Suspect Marquez to "get off" the hood. Suspect Marquez rolled off the vehicle and landed on his feet, with his back against the left front fender. Suspect Marquez spun his body toward the car door and made grunting noises as he used his left hand to open the driver's door. Suspect Marquez placed his left foot inside the vehicle and his left hand on the steering wheel. Deputy Jaramillo believed Suspect Marquez was about to steal his patrol car.

Deputy Jaramillo ran to Suspect Marquez and placed his left arm over Suspect Marquez' left shoulder from behind. With his left forearm at the front of Suspect Marquez' chest, Deputy Jaramillo grabbed Suspect Marquez' right triceps with his right hand and attempted to pull Suspect Marquez away from the patrol vehicle. Suspect Marquez resisted by pulling his body to the right and trying to sit in the driver's seat. Deputy Jaramillo momentarily lost control of Suspect Marquez' right arm. Deputy Jaramillo's back was now wedged against the car door and frame. He leaned forward as he maintained control of Suspect Marquez' head and upper torso with his left arm. Suspect Marquez pulled his body downward in attempt to release himself from Deputy Jaramillo's control hold. Once Suspect Marquez sat on the door frame of the patrol vehicle, Deputy Jaramillo lost sight of Suspect Marquez' hands.

Deputy Jaramillo attempted to grab the microphone of his portable radio to call for help; however, he realized Suspect Marquez might have pulled his microphone away from his shirt. Deputy Jaramillo pulled the microphone with his right hand and relayed emergent radio traffic, stating he was involved in a fight. He then realized his radio was still on the Direct Mode because he did not hear an acknowledgement by the Sheriff's Communication Center (SCC) or Deputies Rodriguez or [redacted]. Deputy Jaramillo feared he was losing control of Suspect Marquez as he continued to pull away from him, toward the patrol vehicle. Deputy Jaramillo punched Suspect Marquez' forehead with his right fist as he maintained control of Suspect Marquez with his left arm in an attempt to subdue him. This had no effect on Suspect Marquez as he continued to pull away from Deputy Jaramillo. Deputy Jaramillo looked north and saw the patrol vehicle traveling south in his direction. Deputy Jaramillo made one last attempt to gain control of Suspect Marquez (Jaramillo, Transcript, page 29). Deputy Jaramillo lunged forward and twisted his body to the right away from the driver's door. Suspect Marquez fell face down with his left hand under his upper torso and his right hand on his side. Deputy Jaramillo landed on top of Suspect Marquez and straddled his lower back. Deputy Rodriguez approached Suspect Marquez' right side and handcuffed his right wrist. Deputies Jaramillo and Rodriguez rolled Suspect Marquez onto his right side to remove the left arm from under his body. Deputy Jaramillo grabbed Suspect Marquez' left forearm, and Deputy Rodriguez handcuffed Suspect Marquez' left wrist without any resistance.

Deputy Jaramillo believed Suspect Marquez was under the influence of a stimulant due to his inability to focus, sweating profusely, and continuing to grunt like an animal (Jaramillo, Transcript, page 30). Deputy Jaramillo vaguely remembered seeing Deputy [redacted] behind him. Deputy Jaramillo believed Suspect Marquez became cooperative when they handcuffed him. Deputy Jaramillo did not have any further contact with Suspect Marquez, as he proceeded to contact and interview Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted].

Deputy Jaramillo was treated at U.S. HealthWorks Urgent Care for abrasions to his knees and the complaint of pain to his lower back.

DEPUTY LUIS RODRIGUEZ

On January 2, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo interviewed Deputy Luis Rodriguez at IDT Station. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Deputy Rodriguez worked with Deputy [redacted] as Unit 144D on the P.M. shift. A priority call regarding a fight disturbance at [redacted] was assigned to them. They were the primary handling unit, and Deputy Magana was the assisting unit. He recalled Deputy Magana was unable to respond to the call; therefore, Deputy Jaramillo responded to assist them. Deputy Rodriguez vaguely recalled coordinating their response on L-TAC by providing a meeting location at Gemini Street and Sandalwood Avenue.

As they drove to the location, they learned the disturbing parties had stopped fighting and dispersed. Deputies Rodriguez, [redacted] and Jaramillo met and immediately drove in tandem, north on Sandalwood Avenue, toward Wintonwood Lane. Deputy Rodriguez drove slowly behind Deputy Jaramillo. He utilized his flashlight to illuminate the area to locate any possible suspects or victims. Deputy Rodriguez drove east on Wintonwood Lane and observed two males hiding behind a parked vehicle. Deputy Rodriguez stopped his patrol vehicle to contact them while Deputy Jaramillo continued driving south on Winton Avenue from Wintonwood Lane. As he and Deputy [redacted] spoke to the two males, Deputy Rodriguez heard Deputy Jaramillo on the Direct Mode of Dispatch 8, stating a male in a white shirt was running north on Winton Avenue in their direction. However, he did not see the described male (Rodriguez, Transcript, page 12).

A few seconds later, Deputy Rodriguez heard Deputy Jaramillo request emergent radio traffic on the Direct Mode. Deputy Rodriguez immediately recognized Deputy Jaramillo's voice asking for help, but he could not recall what Deputy Jaramillo said on the radio (Rodriguez, Transcript, page 13). Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] stopped talking to the male detainees, drove south on Winton Avenue, and parked behind Deputy Jaramillo's patrol vehicle. Deputy Rodriguez exited his patrol vehicle, made his approach, and observed Deputy Jaramillo straddling on top of Suspect Marquez. Suspect Marquez was lying face down on the ground, approximately two to three feet away from the driver's door, with his head pointing to the east. Deputy Rodriguez approached Suspect Marquez from the right side, grabbed Suspect Marquez' right arm and handcuffed him. Deputies Rodriguez and Jaramillo then rolled him to his right side to release his left arm, which was tucked under his body. Deputy Rodriguez grabbed Suspect Marquez' left upper arm as Deputy Jaramillo grabbed the left wrist and placed it behind his back. Deputy Rodriguez then handcuffed Suspect Marquez' left wrist. Suspect Marquez did not resist them.

Deputies Rodriguez and [redacted] escorted and detained Suspect Marquez in their patrol vehicle without incident. Deputy Rodriguez vaguely recalled placing a hobble around Suspect Marquez' legs to prevent him from causing any damage to the patrol vehicle's window(s) and/or injuring himself. Deputy Rodriguez believed Suspect Marquez was not resistive while the hobble was applied. Suspect Marquez was then transported to Queen of the Valley Hospital by Deputies Khouthavong and Kim, where he was treated for his injuries.

DEPUTY [redacted]

On January 2, 2019, IAB Sergeant Maricela Castillo interviewed Deputy [redacted] at IDT Station. The interview was digitally recorded and transcribed. The interview transcript was included with this case. The following is a summary of the interview.

On April 25, 2018, Deputy [redacted] worked with Deputy Rodriguez as Unit 144D on the P.M. shift. Deputy [redacted] was on her first month of [redacted] and she vaguely remembered the details of this incident. Deputies [redacted] and Rodriguez received a call regarding a fight disturbance at [redacted] and they were assigned as the primary unit. Deputy Magana was assigned as the assisting unit. Deputy [redacted] believed Deputy Magana did not respond to the call; therefore, Deputy Jaramillo assisted them. Deputy [redacted] believed Deputy Rodriguez coordinated their response on L-TAC, and requested units to check the area for any possible suspects.

As Deputy Rodriguez drove east on Wintonwood Lane, they observed two males crouching down behind a parked vehicle. Deputy Rodriguez stopped the patrol vehicle to talk to them. As they contacted the males, Deputy [redacted] saw Deputy Jaramillo's patrol vehicle stopped approximately 80 yards south of them on Winton Avenue ([redacted], Transcript, page 6).

A few seconds later, Deputy [redacted] heard Deputy Jaramillo relay he was involved in a fight over the Direct Mode of Dispatch 8. They entered their patrol vehicle and drove south toward Deputy Jaramillo. Deputy [redacted] could see Deputy Jaramillo struggling as Suspect Marquez lifted his body in an attempt to "buck" Deputy Jaramillo off of him ([redacted], Transcript, page 13). Deputy Jaramillo and Suspect Marquez were on the ground next to the driver's side of his patrol car ([redacted], Transcript, page 11). As she ran to Deputy Jaramillo, she observed Deputy Jaramillo straddling over Suspect Marquez' waist. Suspect Marquez was lying on the ground, with his head pointing to the east and his legs pointing toward the patrol vehicle. She heard Deputy Jaramillo order Suspect Marquez to "stop fighting" ([redacted], Transcript, page 12), and she saw Suspect Marquez lift his body and kick his feet. Deputy [redacted] approached and grabbed Suspect Marquez' legs with her hands. She crossed Suspect Marquez' ankles and held them in place to prevent him from kicking. Deputy [redacted] recalled facing Deputy Jaramillo's back as she held Suspect Marquez' legs. Deputy Rodriguez believed Suspect Marquez resisted when they handcuffed him, because it took them a few seconds to secure the handcuffs.

Deputy [redacted] did not recall who escorted Suspect Marquez to the patrol vehicle or if his legs were hobbled. She reported her use of force to the field sergeant and wrote her report.
